7 Department.

8
9 BAILEY: Good afternoon. To all parties present, the use of 10 recording devices is prohibited during these proceedings. Unless 11 otherwise noted, all respondents are appearing virtually from the 12 Moshannon Valley Processing Center. We are joined today with a

22
23 [START OF PART 2 OF THE RECORDING]

FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

24

25 BAILEY: This is a custody - this is a custody of redetermination
26 hearing, the matter of Miguel Gregorio Vamondez Barrios, 240176787.
27 Respondent is present pro se. Sir, when you were detained by 28 immigration, you asked to have an immigration court review their
29 decision to detain you.

30

31 BAILEY: And for that reason, you are scheduled for a bond hearing
32 today.

33

34 BAILEY: A bond hearing is separate from a removal proceeding.

35

36 BAILEY: To be eligible for bond, you must prove that you are not
37 a danger to the community or a risk of flight.

38

39 BAILEY: You would have to submit document - you would have to
40 submit documents relating to any criminal arrest, including police
41 reports, complaints, and certificates of judgment or conviction.

42

43 BAILEY: And you would have to submit documents showing that you
44 community and family ties, a stable address in the United States,
45 and that you will be applying for relief from removal.

46

47 BAILEY: You have only one opportunity to request release on bond.

48

49 BAILEY: If you do not submit any evidence, the court will find
50 that you have not met your burden to establish eligibility for 51 release.

52

53 BAILEY: And you would not be able to request another bond
54 hearing.

55
56 BAILEY: Do you have any questions?
57
58 INTERPRETER: What proof do I need to bring, Your Honor, for the 59 bond?
60
61 BAILEY: As I was just explaining, you would have to submit a
62 police report, criminal complaint, and certificate of judgment or
63 conviction from any arrest that you've had.
64
65 BAILEY: As well as proof that you have family and community ties
66 in the United States, a stable address, and that you would be
67 seeking relief in immigration court.
68
69 BAILEY: Once you have all that evidence compiled, you will need
70 to write a cover letter with your name and a number on the top and
71 the words "Request for bond hearing."
72
73 BAILEY: Everything you submit to the court must be in English.
74
75 INTERPRETER: I have to send - send the documents directly, or my
76 family outside could do it.
77
78 BAILEY: You have to send them directly.
79
80 INTERPRETER: Okay. Do I have to file all of this before the next
81 hearing?
82
83 BAILEY: Because you are scheduled for a bond hearing today but
84 there is no evidence, my recommendation is that you withdraw it
85 today.

86
87 BAILEY: So that you can then file another request for bond.
88
89 BAILEY: Once you have all the evidence.
90
91 BAILEY: At that - so once you have all the evidence filed, you
92 can submit that whenever it's ready.
93
94 INTERPRETER: The bond hearing?
95
96 BAILEY: Correct. Okay.
97
98 INTERPRETER: Yes, thank you.
99
100 BAILEY: We are withdrawing today.
101
102 INTERPRETER: Can I ask a last question? Sorry.
103
104 BAILEY: Yes.
105
106 INTERPRETER: Once I have the bond hearing, what will be the
107 amount of bond due - that I have to pay?
108
109 BAILEY: It depends on the evidence that you submit and how strong
110 your family community ties in the United States are.
111
112 INTERPRETER: The only family ties that I have in the country is 113 my wife and my newborn child, who is three weeks old, and obviously 114 I have not seen her. I have been in here locked up, and I would
115 like to remain here in the country because I would like to stay

116 with her. She's my firstborn, my only child. And I want to be with 117 her.

118

119 BAILEY: Okay. So that's all for today. We are concluded.
